Greg, we didn't represent that you had agreed to anything or suggest anything of the sort. We were making an assertion. If you don't agree, that's fine. We'll take it up with the Court but we are not making our witnesses available, or planning on taking depositions, pending a new schedule in the adversary proceeding.

Thanks.

Christine –

We have not agreed to adjourn the trial or depositions. It was wrong of you to make that representation as if we had reached agreement on that point, which you know to be untrue. We will be responding to you on scheduling shortly.

[EXTERNAL]

Counsel,

The Debtors just filed the attached complaint against Sphere and Gryphon to bring all of the issues in one proceeding for complete resolution. Please let us know if you will agree to accept service.

This filing obviously impacts the schedule set in the Sphere contested matter, as discovery (including depositions) and the trial—on calendar for January 30 to February 1—will need to be adjourned and rescheduled. To be clear, none of the pending depositions will go forward and we can discuss with you and Sphere's counsel an appropriate date for a scheduling conference with the Court to set out a schedule for the adversary proceeding.

Best,
